Martin Fridson documents the essential principles inherent in every billionaire's success." -Gordon Bethune Chairman of the Board and CEO Continental Airlines Self-made billionaires all have one thing in common: they excel at making money. But hard work, thrift, and focus are only part of the story-you hold the rest of it in your hands. How to Be a Billionaire is the first comprehensive picture of the real strategies and tactics that built the great business fortunes of modern times. Packed with engaging accounts of titans like Ross Perot, Richard Branson, Phil Anschutz, John D. Rockefeller, Wayne Huizenga, Bill Gates, J. Paul Getty, and Kirk Kerkorian, How to Be a Billionaire will show you principles that can increase your wealth and business acumen to the mogul level. How to Be a Billionaire looks at the careers, the methods, and the minds of self-made billionaires to distill the common keys to titanic accumulations of wealth. Each chapter explores a specific strategy and brings it to life through extended profiles of past and present masters of the art of making money. Do you think innovation is the best way to prosper in business? Sam Walton, founder of the Wal-Mart retail chain, would tell you otherwise. The key to Walton's success was supreme devotion to copying the methods of other successful discounters. What could be less complicated than buying low and selling high? But the ascent of Warren Buffett, John Kluge, and Laurence Tisch to billionaire status depended on much more than an eye for good bargains. And if you're looking to thrive by outmanaging the competition, look no further than Richard Branson. When the founder of Virgin Atlantic needed to reduce his staff by 400 people, 600 volunteered to take off a few months on sabbatical. How to Be a Billionaire identifies the methods, beliefs, and behaviors every businessperson must understand and emulate to reach the pinnacle of riches. A manual for success that can benefit every aspiring tycoon, it is a fascinating read for anyone intrigued by wealth and how it's gotten. Praise for HOW TO BE A BILLIONAIRE "How to Be a Billionaire offers fascinating insight into the subject of building wealth. As a result of his exhaustive research, Martin Fridson is able to explain the wealth-creation process from a unique perspective. As the reader will discover, there is no single formula for success, but there are certain categories into which these concepts can be placed. My personal advice is to remember the words of Winston Churchill who said, 'Success is the ability to go from one failure to another with no loss of enthusiasm.'" -Ross Perot "Martin Fridson has created the ultimate roadmap to the American Dream. He comes as close to extracting a formula for the acquisition of wealth as any book I have ever read." -Jeff Sagansky CEO, Paxson Communications "Martin Fridson's book has a number of very insightful and thoughtful analyses, something you don't pick up in many business schools." -Philip F. Anschutz Chairman and CEO, The Anschutz Corporation "How to Be a Billionaire is a powerful arsenal of dead-on strategies for increasing your personal wealth and business acumen. Marty Fridson details the tactics of self-made billionaires with great intelligence and insight. I wish this book had been available when I was starting my career." -Spencer Hays Founder, Tom James Company Executive Chairman, Southwestern/Great American, Inc. Moreover, how to attain extreme fame leverage is demystified and how to earn substantial money online so that you afford to eminently enrich every aspect of your life is meticulously expounded upon in this essay. Albeit ineffably arduous, it is possible to become a billionaire in the digital era even if you are poor, destitute, indigent, and live an unpleasant life that is fraught with poverty. In order to become a billionaire, you need to amass a net worth of $1,000,000,000 which is no small feat, especially in a control market economy with no semblance of a safety net nor universal basic income in spite of their being over 13,000 evisceration fees imposed by bureaucratic apparatuses in which people who work real private sector jobs based on voluntary demand pay into and do not receive anything for paying into. It is not uncommon for the average employee who works a real private sector jobs based on voluntary demand to have at least $80,000 of debt as their negative net worth when they pass away since the cost of living is so egregiously high and the standard of living is so egregiously low. Moreover, it also creates a calamitous recipe for indigence, destitution, and poverty that the individual is mandated to attend the salubrious, 13 year, K-12 compulsory indoctrination camps against their own accord when they could have otherwise earmarked this sacrosanct time into creating income generating assets, building brands, or working in other capacities, such as a traditional job, if they had purview over their time and lived in a free market economy. In this controlled market economy in which the individual has no purview over how their finite, sacrosanct, invaluable time is earmarked, children are dispatched to a 13 year, insalubrious, K-12 compulsory indoctrination camp which some people refer to as a 13 year, insalubrious, K-12 compulsory prison, while others refer to it as a 13 year, insalubrious, K-12 compulsory concentration camp due to it being an insalubrious environment that individuals are relegated to from a young age against their own accord. Nothing salubrious nor fruitful can ever ensue from attending the 13 year, insalubrious, K-12 compulsory indoctrination camp against one's own accord. Attending the 13 year, insalubrious, K-12 compulsory indoctrination camp against one's own accord is detrimental to the individual's health, physically, mentally, and spirituality, because it sets them back over 32,760 hours and eviscerates them out of their precious time needed to sleep, eat, exercise, and work towards reaching their overarching goals. Throughout the entirety of their youth, the individual is required to attend a 13 year, insalubrious, K-12 compulsory indoctrination camp against their own volition in which they learn absolutely nothing pragmatic from even after having attended the insalubrious, K-12 compulsory indoctrination camp for tens of thousands of hours. They are also mandated to complete thousands of homework assignments. His proposal is pure convenience... Their desire is anything but!
